

CONNECT WITH YOUR OVERSOUL!

THE OVERSOUL, UNDERSTANDING THE TERM

Oversoul is a word that was originally coined to express the various aspects a very complex concept inside of the program of evolution: the parts of the Monadic Essence of Creation.

Progress has not followed a straight ascending line, but a spiral with rhythms of progress and retrogression, of evolution and dissolution

“The story begins with the Absolute. From the Absolute comes the Divine Fire. A spark of this Divine Fire is differentiated into a ‘Divine Spark’, and is called the Monad. It is difficult to describe the Monad, or to list its attributes. All that can really be said in a description of the Monad is that it is an individualized expression of the Absolute, a “Divine Spark.””

It is the expression of the concept of "one essence" in metaphysical and theological theory. In Ageless Wisdom, the Unit of Creation can and will express and experiment itself through various stages and manifestation of consciousness.

Monads are spiritual-substantial entities, self-motivated, self-impelled, self-conscious, in infinitely varying degrees, the ultimate elements of the universe. These monads engender other monads as one seed will produce multitudes of other seeds; so up from each such Monad springs a host of living entities in the course of illimitable time, each such Monad being the fountainhead or parent, in which all others are involved, and from which they spring.

All the seeds and offspring of the Monad constitute what we call our Oversoul. Therefore, for Oversoul, we understand that it comprises the complete scope of Soul extensions that constitute our Family of Light. A human monad can have twelve Souls as monadic extensions, and these twelve Souls can, in their turn, expand themselves to have up to twelve Soul extensions of their own. Taken together, the monad can be vibrating and experience itself on the plane of individuality in 144 different aspects of itself. The monad is just like a diamond with 144 facets, all connected and vibrating in unison as One.

The true realization and awareness of these important parts of us are vital steps to the expansion of our horizons and consciousness. The recognition of this intricate concept can greatly broaden our understanding of ourselves and our roles inside of the manifested universe. The Master Djwhal Khul says, through his work with Alice Bailey, that the relationship between all Souls and their Oversouls constitute the basis of the scientific belief in “Brotherhood”, or Oneness, as, at the same time, he affirms that Oneness, is a reality of nature, not just an ideal concept.

The clearing and the anchoring of the energies from our Family of Light is a legitimate work of Soul integration, which helps an individual to re-engineer its limiting system of beliefs, amplifying the reach and heightening the general vibration, creating limitless opportunities to exchange experiences and wisdom with the multifaceted and multi-dimensional realities of Be-ing.

The opening gates of this invaluable Soul contact are indicated in the spiritual works of the building of the Bridge of Light (Antahkarana) which opens oneself to the perspective to cross beyond the limiting island of the Self to the immense new continents of the Soul-selves and Monadic-selves.

THE BIG PICTURE AND A WAY FOR YOU TO PERCEIVE YOUR OVERSOUL

We are all whole, vast, powerful beings, part of a greater soul collective. Like petals on a flower, our individual soul and others in this collective are known as our soul cluster group. To further clarify this verbal illustration, the center of the flower could be called the oversoul<sup>1</sup>. The flower as a whole represents the oversoul energy. Our oversoul and others are connected, which make up larger soul families and collectives. To broaden the perspective even more, all oversouls that exist in all time and space, linked together as one are Source. Source energy is divine energy—the energy that forms the Godhead—the all that is.

At some point during our soul's existence we no longer remained in Source. We broke off from our oversoul and incarnated into physical form, in this linear timeline, so that we could experience the illusion of being separate. We did this to learn specific lessons, have certain experiences, and gain spiritual mastery as directed by our Oversoul.

The Oversoul records and integrates every lifetime and the life events of each soul member. A good metaphor to clarify this concept is to view the oversoul as a radio station and each member of the soul cluster as a particular song. As individuals, we only know our own song, but the oversoul has access to all the varieties at once.

Since we've begun incarnating, over thousands, even millions of times on earth and in other physical and nonphysical planets, worlds, and realities, both as individuals and collectives, we have experienced opposite ends of the spectrum in being human or another living being—good and bad, pain and pleasure, joy and despair, abundance and scarcity, and all that exists in between.

In the process, through trauma or overwhelming circumstances, we have become fragmented. At this time of the shift, many of us as individual souls long to return to the soup of our Oversoul energy and ultimately, Source. We desire the peace and harmony of oneness.

Our Ascension is a process that involves our individual souls merging with our higher selves and becoming fully fifth dimensional. Currently, humanity's soul consciousness resides in the fourth dimension, and is headed to the 5th and Beyond. This is a dimension where we can experience the dense, physical aspects of the third dimensional existence and the lighter, ethereal experiences of the fifth dimension, as our physical bodies transform from carbon-based to crystalline. The animal and nature kingdom are also shifting along with us, as their physical consciousness is becoming more higher dimensional, and their bodies are also changing to crystalline.

Our Ascension may take more time than we expect. But after we Ascend, our evolution continues; we rise up through the higher dimensions. From a linear perspective, eventually we will reach a nonphysical existence once again, while becoming one with those in our soul cluster along the way. Presently, our main goal is still to first focus on the process of helping our individual soul become whole.

This wholeness happens through our healing process: becoming aware of and experiencing the suppressed or repressed memories, thoughts, emotions, beliefs, and behaviors from this life and all of our other lives. It also involves mastery of the lessons associated with them. As we heal, any hindering energies begin to lift out of our energy fields. Soul pieces and fragments that we have lost through trauma come back to us. Our being fills up with more divine light and unconditional love. We then make our way back to being bigger beings again.

But it is important to understand that while we are on this journey, we will continue to recreate situations that bring up the old memories, thoughts, emotions, beliefs, and behaviors, to a greater or lesser degree, depending on our level of spiritual understanding. This will persist until all of these vibrations are completely cleared from our energy fields and our individual souls have become whole through fully experiencing and therefore integrating these life happenings. This is what it takes to heal many lifetimes and many layers of wounding and trauma.

As our individual souls become more whole, we then begin the healing process with those in our soul cluster. This is already happening for many on earth right now. We are remembering and experiencing the traumas of many of those beings in our cluster group. Because of this, we might dream about lifetimes that these souls have lived. At that time, or even while awake, we can access many of those soul's memories, beliefs, thoughts, emotions, behaviors, and even physical sensations related to particular life experiences and traumas.

When this happens in a dream or vision, the experiences might feel or look like they are happening to you. They might remind you of something from your past or you might think they are from another one of your lifetimes. Sometimes when the memories, emotions, or visceral sensations are experienced, you might even think they are related to something in your current life.

It takes a great deal of intuitive experience to understand what's really going on in these situations. The good news is, you don't have to know whether it was you or another soul that experienced the trauma because the souls that are part of your cluster make up your Oversoul energy, which is the bigger you. So heal these issues the same way you would heal your individual soul's issues.

From the big picture standpoint, as we deepen the process of healing and transformation for our individual soul and our soul cluster, our consciousness continually expands. We evolve. This enlightenment continues through all of our existences, until we merge fully into our oversoul's energy, eventually making our way back to Source—the ultimate divine energy—the all that is.

WHAT IS YOUR OVERSOUL DOING RIGHT NOW?

As you go about your daily business here on Earth, other expressions of you, namely your “Higher Self” and your “Oversoul” are entrusted with empowering the earthbound you in finding your truth and realizing your divine plan. They act as a team with your spirit guides, to help you in your development and progress. Each is as important as the other. Because they are with you continuously and forever, it is essential for you to connect more consciously with your Higher Self and Oversoul.

Your Oversoul is that aspect of you that is pure unconditional love, bringing in divine timing and grace and direct connection with a God Source, true for all your lives on all the planets, through all the dimensions of time and space. Your Oversoul encompasses the same principles as the Higher Self, yet has concerns and sees things from a Spiritual Perspective that is far beyond our intellectual capacity. Your Oversoul sees the energetic root cause of your physical experiences, especially those that are operating below the surface of your conscious awareness.

The power and magnificence of your Oversoul, truly shapes your destiny, and in doing so has a unique way of being and guiding you. When there is some special mission or project to be completed your Over Soul may even connect with you in human form, as a friend, advisor, parent. Your Oversoul helps you become aware of how to tune into yourself and achieve mental, physical and spiritual balance so you can steadily be in motion toward your life's purpose. Because your Oversoul has intimate knowledge of you in past lives you are provided opportunities to connect to people who have passed, especially if there is a need to heal, to let go, or for closure. Your Oversoul helps you convert life lessons into a mind enhancing revelations that truly serve you.

OVERSOUL BLENDING-ATTRIBUTES HEALING RIGHT NOW IN THE PRESENT

Oversoul Blending-Attributes Divinity Healing helps to re-establish connection first of all to the Oversoul. It also reconnects the severed axiatonal lines, and rejuvenates the axial circulatory system. Once the connection has been re-established, the Oversoul transmits the appropriate energies through the axiatonal lines to regenerate and reharmonize the various bodies according to the Divine Blueprint.

Axiatonal lines lie along the acupuncture meridians, and feed into major spin points that lie near the surface of the skin. Spin points are small spherical vortices of electromagnetic energy that emit Light and Sound frequencies which cause the atoms of molecules in the cells to spin faster. This increased spin creates Light fibers that then create a grid for cellular regeneration.

These spin points feed axiatonal energy into the axial circulatory system, and the acupuncture meridians. Every cell in the body also has a spin point. The axial circulatory system connects all the spin points in the body.

Axiatonal energy continually recharges all bodies, and additionally assists to clear negative emotional and mental patterns.

The reconnection to the Oversoul level acts as the gateway to hook up to even higher levels of Self. As we embrace our Wholeness, Spirit manifests more of its vastness through the body, which allows for greater Light, Love, and Wisdom to enter. This is called "Descension of Spirit", and as this happens, we begin to express in the fullness of who we are - as Source.
